To Whom It May Concern:

It is with great pleasure that the St. Lawrence-Lewis Workers' Compensation Plan submit this letter of recommendation for Amy McEathron and her staff at IMEC. Ms. McEathron and her courteous staff go above and beyond the norm to ensure the needs of their clients are met in all aspects of their work for our office.

Proof of the expertise and dedication of the entire staff at IMEC is evident in all aspects of the Independent Medical Examination process, from the timely response to appointment requests, receipt of informative reports, and their response to addendum requests for clarifying documentation. Ms. McEathron and her staff have made the process of arranging Independent Medical Exams an efficient mechanism that benefits the work completed by our claim examiners.

I would not hesitate to recommend IMEC for any business or organization requiring the need of an experienced company that provides excellent service in the area of Independent Medical Examination reporting.

Sincerely,

Jayne M. Carbone
